

U.F.A. Holds Reg. Monthly Meeting

Convention Report Presented-- New Members Admitted-- Report re Hall Property

About thirty members were present in the Council Chamber on Saturday afternoon at the regular monthly meeting of the U.F.A. The diminished attendance was due to the heavy snow and consequent bad roads. Much business was transacted including the following: R.H. Watson, president and treasurer for the last calendar year, submitted a report on the financial standing of the local which was accepted as a progressive pending the report of the auditors, Messrs C.H. Rowe, V.E. Graham and A. Kohl. J.H. Dawson presented a report of the committee in charge of securing suitable club premises for the U.F.A. real room. After much discussion it was decided to negotiate for the purchase of the property, owned and occupied by Fred Small, Messrs Dawson, Clippstone and Bean being delegated authority to proceed with the scheme. The president, Rev. N. F. Priestley reported having been approached by the Wainwright Football club with a view to co-operation in the matter of securing suitable club premises. This was left over to be considered subsequent to the purchase before mentioned. Messrs Peter Monahan and W.J. Huntington were proposed as new members and accepted.

THE Y. W. C. A. SEEKING FUNDS FOR NEW HOME

For the purpose of raising $150,000. to be used in the erection of a Young Women's Christian Association building in Edmonton the "Y" is planning a campaign to commence on May 12th. This undertaking is of special concern to the people of Northern Alberta, as many girls, women, and children coming from outside towns and the rural districts are accommodated at the Y.W.C.A. and are accommodated there so far as a very inadequate building will permit. During the fiscal year of the association, which closed on March 31st, 1919, girls were housed in the Y. W. C. A. home, while 1742 women and "Y" was unable to provide x-til rooms were referred to other places. In spite of being handicapped by an inadequate building, the "Y" has during the past year ministered in some form or another to over ten thousand girls, women and children. Many of these were strangers in a strange land. Now in order that the association may carry on the good work which means so much to women and girls coming to the city from outside points, it is making an appeal to all friends to extend financial support to this building project. The co-operation of the U. F. W. A. locals and the Alberta Women's Institutes has been sought in this matter, and replies received to date have been most encouraging. Donations may be sent to Miss Elizabeth Bradshaw, General Secretary Y. W. C. A. Edmonton, Alberta, and will be most gratefully received.

EDGEMONT'S WELCOME

The social evening given in Gorton's Hall on Friday evening last, in honor of the Rev. Mr. Maddocks and his family, was a most successful one. Those contributing to the entertainment were Miss Clendennan, Mr. Maddocks, Orchestra and the tableaux were more than enjoyed by all. Lunch was served by the members of the W. A. and was delightfully arranged.

Mrs. Miner had a narrow escape from a serious injury on Saturday last, when the team which she drove in to town bolted from the treacherous and were only stopped by a wire fence in the west end of town.

THE BUSINESS MAN'S NEW 10 COMMANDMENTS

Thou shalt not wait for something to turn up, but thou shalt pull off thy coat and go to work that thou mayest prosper in thy affairs and make the word "failure" spell "success".

Thou shalt not be content to go about thy business looking like a loafer, but thou shalt appear as is better than a letter of recommendation.

Thou shalt not try to make excuses, nor shalt thou say to those who chide thee, "I didn't think."

Thou shalt not wait to be told what thou shalt do, nor in what manner thou shalt do it, for thus may thy days long in the job which thy fortune hath given thee.

Thou shalt not fail to maintain thine own integrity, nor shalt thou be guilty of anything which will lessen thy respectability for thyself.

Thou shalt not covet the other fellow's job nor his salary, nor the position he has gained by his own hard labor.

Thou shalt not be afraid to blow thine own horn, for he who faileth to blow his horn at the proper occasion findeth no body standing ready to blow it for him.

Thou shalt not fail to live within thine income, nor shalt thou contract any debts when thou canst not see the way clear to pay them.

Thou shalt not hesitate to say "no" when thou meanest "no," nor shalt thou fail to remember that there are times when it is unsafe to bind thyself to a hasty judgment.

Thou shalt give every man a square deal. This is the last and great commandment and there is none other like it. Upon this commandment hangs all the law and profits of the business world.

LOCAL NOTES

Mrs. W. T. Brunker left on Monday last to pay an extended visit at the home of her parents at Marmora, Ont. Poor Bill is on the back!

At the Mothers' Day service next Sunday in the Presbyterian church the local collection is to be devoted to the furnishing of a Sunday school primary room. $30 is the sum desired, and considering the worthiness of the object it is hoped that this will be obtained.

ROSEMARY RAMBLES

A splendid start was made on the land last week, cutting with the recent implements proving successful. In spite of very unfavorable conditions some seeding was done.

C. Saul, of Chauvin, spent the week end with friends here.

We are sorry to lose George Bishop and his family, who have moved to the McCafferty district.

CONVENTION OF TEACHERS HERE MAY 13TH TO 15TH

As the date of the teachers' convention is drawing near—May 13-15—the committee is arranging to secure accommodation for the delegates who, it is hoped will attend in large numbers. They propose to canvas the town to find out the citizens who will be willing to open their homes to the teachers during the session. This convention means a big boost for the town and it is hoped that all who can conveniently do so will be kind enough to aid the work of education by rendering the teachers this accommodation wherever possible.

The programme will include a drive to the Buffalo park if the weather permits, and the teachers' association hopes to be able to again draw on the generosity of auto owners for assistance along this line.

FAIR DIRECTORS MEET

Those responsible for the prize list of the forthcoming fair met on Saturday last, and after some lengthy discussion finally adopted the work of the committee of the various classes.

Several important additions have been made to this year's list and in some instances extra prize money has been added as well as many additional classes. The list will soon be ready to be placed in the hands of the printer and no doubt all will be anxious to obtain copies of this so as to make due preparation for the event.

"Some bills were ordered paid and before adjourning the secretary was empowered to obtain some necessary stationery supplies."

BETTER NOT WORSE

If we take the word of various public speakers these days discussing religion and morals, we would reach the conclusion that instead of becoming better this world of ours is rapidly deteriorating. But should we take the word of these men and women in preference to the evidence of our enlightened intelligences? Are we not in as good position as they to reach an independent conclusion and in what state are our intelligences given to us?

It is a fact that because of the great war and the close association it brought so many of us into with the Great Herd, after through the passing of our loved ones, many thousands of us are taking a lively interest in all questions pertaining to the future state. This attitude of inquiry is as reverent as could well be conceived. It is not born of an antipathy to religion, rather it is a development of our deeper religious feeling.

The Star does not believe there has ever been in the history of the world when the impulse for right living and right doing has been greater. It is a day of tremendous opportunity and responsibility for leaders of thought and men of the Oliver Lodge type are sensing it. They do not dogmatize nor do they hurt antagonists at the ones who disagree with them. They give what they believe to be the truth to the people and leave it for them to accept or reject as they choose. And the people are listening and weighing the evidence everywhere.

Intellectually and spiritually we are awake today as we have never been. The fact that we are not satisfied with religion or morals as they have been taught in the past does not mean that we are deteriorating. Rather it means that we are progressing, for we are using our brains which is the only way in which we can make true progress.

EFFECTIVE BOYCOTT.

Much has appeared in the press of Canada and United States within the past few years regarding the newspapers and magazines owned partially or completely by William Randolph Hearst. All decent citizens of both countries suffer a feeling of disgust whenever Hearst's name is mentioned, and they have good cause. During the war the Hearst newspapers were barred from Canada. With the coming of peace the ban has been lifted but there is little demand in this country for the scurrilous sheets issued by this well-known England-hater. The people here, and the thinking people of the United States, have Hearst's true measure. He is regarded, and quite properly as a menace to friendly international relations and society in general, and as having written a black page in the history of American journalism.

Sometimes we fear, though, that too much importance is attached to the products of the Hearst press. Is it worth while, after all, to recognize this man to the extent of mentioning his name in the Canadian House of Commons or of talking of replacing a black page in the history of American journalism?

Indeed it is likely that such recognition is just what Hearst desires. The proper way to handle such a man, and to one must discount his power or importance in his particular field—is through the medium of the boycott. unofficial but tremendously effective. One way in which this may be brought about would be a decision by every Canadian to refuse to buy any articles advertised in any Hearst publication. When one stops to consider just what such a campaign would embrace the real possibilities of the idea will be appreciated. If successfully carried into effect, this policy, on the part of Canadian newspaper and magazine readers, would have the likely effect of depriving the Hearst publication of several dozen productive national advertising accounts. The advertiser would have the alternative of ceasing to do business with Hearst or losing their Canadian trade altogether. And few of them would care to refund the money for the extensive business built up for their products in this country.

Statements could be issued showing the list of Hearst publication and the reasonable time allotted for the manufacturers and dealers of internationally-used articles to remove their advertisements from the pages of the Hearst newspapers and magazines. After the expiration of that time there would be a general refusal to buy a product still advertised in any publication issued by this man.

 C. H. ROWE, WAINWRIGHT BRANCH.

Furthermore, the idea could be extended to the United States with the people of that country refusing to purchase the goods of any manufacturer using space in a Hearst publication.

The boycott is easily the most effective way to deal with such a man as Hearst. His financial resources are extensive and his influence large, but it is possible for a disgusted people to undermine both.

The Star would be glad to see this suggestion considered from one end of Canada to the other. If Canadians can get together on the proposition we shall be able to bar Hearst from this country more completely than in any other way, and we shall have gone far in the pleasant task of tearing his influence from the United States.

GOOD ROADS.

From many tests of the weights a two horse team will pull in a farm wagon over various road surfaces, the following figures have been deduced—On a smooth, dry earth road two to four tons and pounds; on a good macadam road, eight to ten thousand pounds.

The cost of hauling a ton a mile on German roads is ten cents; on English roads about the same; while in France, the home of good roads, the cost is but four cents. In the United States the cost is twenty-three cents. The annual cost of hauling from farm to market in the States, according to the department of agriculture, is more than the freight on the same produce from New York to Liverpool.

According to the Interstate Commerce Commission the railways of the United States in one year hauled more than nine hundred million tons of freight, of which two hundred and seventy-five million tons consisted of farm produce. When the cost of hauling that to the railroad has been reduced from twenty-three cents to ten cents, thirty-five million dollars will be added to the profits of the farmers, every year.

Roads that are good for freight traffic, are also good for developing a country. The U.S. department of agriculture finds that in twenty-five countries, selected at random, in which less than two per cent of the roads are improved, the population decreased an average of three thousand to the county in the decade 1900-1910 while in twenty-five countries similarly selected, where forty per cent of the roads are improved, the average increase of population per county was thirty-one thousand.

Good roads are also found to be good for the educational uplift of the country. In five states which have less than three per cent of their roads improved, the average school attendance of enrolled pupils is but fifty-nine per cent; while in five states with thirty-five per cent of their roads improved, the average attendance is seventy-seven per cent of the enrollment. In five states which have less than twelve per cent of their roads improved, illiteracy averages twenty-three per cent; while in five states in which forty-five per cent of the roads are improved, the average illiteracy is but five per cent.

Good roads are also good for land values. Never yet has a hard surface road failed to add to the market value of the farm and accessible to it. From ten to twenty-five dollars per acre is no common advance in farm values near bettered roads.

The above facts are taken from official United States documents and there is no reason to doubt their accuracy. Just how much they apply to Alberta we leave it to the farmers of this district to determine, especially at this season of the year when they are practically marooned because of the awful condition of what are supposed to be the roads.

The province of Alberta stands in dire need of a good road apostle. It needs a man with public interest to the patch where the road and knowledge to arouse it will force action on the part of the authorities, municipal, district and provincial. It is not going too far to say that farmers and business men of Alberta are losing many hundreds of thousands of dollars this spring because of bad roads. One wonders how much longer they are going to be satisfied with the right sort of organization they might be assured of much gain.

The catch of halibut for the month of March brought into Prince Rupert totalled 1,483,000 lbs.

IF THE Five Tires on your car would average 19,128 miles each you'd certainly be more than satisfied, wouldn't you?

Well—that's what five Gates Half-Sole Tires recently did in actual service under ordinary motorium conditions. The new scientific principle of tires construction invented by Charles C. Gates, E. M.—which incorporates your casing within a new factory built tires, makes such extraordinary mileage possible.

And the reinforced double fabric strength and double cushion resiliency of Gates Half-Sole Tires explains why over 600,000 motorists are now using them. Although you'd expect them to cost much more, these puncture-proof Gates Half-Sole Tires cost only half as much as ordinary tires of corresponding size.

SCHOOL GARDENS

MEAN MORE TO COUNTRY PUPILS

The school garden is referred to as a big classroom for outdoor instruction in plants and plant life. It has many of the possibilities in miniature of an experimental farm. It has to do with the composition and fertility of soils, with drainage, with seed germination and with insect enemies of plant life. It shows in a way that cannot be questioned the effect upon all plants of too much or too little sunshine or moisture and the bad effects of weeds and the necessity of giving a plant plenty of room if we wish to secure a high state of development. Dr. Putnam, senior inspector of Ottawa public schools, points out that these things would mean nothing to city children if reared from books or told by teachers. These things taught through a garden where the children prepare the soil, sow the seeds, and care for the plants cannot be without good results.

OPEN LETTER TO

U. F. A. MEMBERS

To the members of the U.F.A. and U.F.W.A. of Battle River constituency.

Ladies and gentlemen—It is with sincere appreciation that I tender my thanks for the support given me in making me a director for 1920.

The more one is in this work, the more one sees the need of greater activity in all its branches; and realizing this, also recognize its responsibilities.

The 1920 Convention has been a record in more ways than one; and we have emerged from it, a stronger and more compact body of organized farmers seeking better conditions.

It is to be hoped that each and every delegate will go home with his mind made up to interest every settler in his district in our great progressive movement.

As many City people have said, "That Farmer's Convention is the most important one held in the Province."

No wonder; when they realize that we carry on the basic industry, and can, if we will, control a majority vote.

To enable us to do the latter, again let me impress on you the great need of thorough organization and that in the early part of the year, try what ever plan suits your particular district best; but make a point to have complete canvass made.

I am going to ask all locals to hold themselves responsible for the organizing of the adjacent territory. This will help a great deal to perfect our organization, and will be a training school for new men. There are still many localities where the U.F.A. is hardly known and which call for my attention; but I shall be glad to go to the assistance of any local where I am needed.

On account of the numerous resolutions that the Convention could pass on, for lack of time, the Resolution Committee are suggesting that Locals present their future resolutions first of all, to their several district Convention; as this would facilitate business a great deal at the Annual one.

In regards to the "Objects" of our Association, I think we should advertise them much more. Many locals are placing cards with the "Object" printed on, in their meeting places and Post Offices, with good results.

In districts where there is a sprinkling of foreign population, these people should be encouraged to join, as the local is a good school as well as a citizen maker. Many locals are finding it profitable to get out a program of their meetings, for six months ahead, and then give every member a copy, also sending some to the surrounding locals to encourage joining.

Let our slogan be "Every farmer a member" or "50,000 for 1920."

Wishing on every success, yours fraternally,

HERBY SPENCER.

Edgerton, Alberta.

PROVINCIAL
WEATHER RPT.

The first semi-monthly crop report of the Department of Agriculture point out that the moisture conditions are good.

The seeding is from twenty to thirty days later by the calendar than it was last year, it varying with the locality. This is important in view of the element of time involved in completing the seeding under conditions of short labor and also short or weak-power stock. If quick general seeding were possible the prospects are best in the last half of the year.

There was heavy rain and heavy snowfall last fall over the whole province. The ground is open to saturation and there has been no run-off; and there has been little waste from the chinooks in the south. There is a depth of from two and a half to four feet of moist soil over the driest parts of the province, and once the seed is in it will have a moisture supply to carry the growth well along. It is this particular condition which enables our prairie crops to hang on in a very dry season so that all things point to the prospect of reaping a good crop in 1920.

GRIP, INFLUENZA

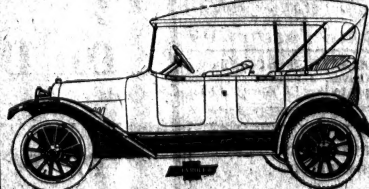

Hamlin's Wizard Oil a Reliable, Antiseptic Preventive

During influenza epidemics spray the nose and throat several times a day with one part Wizard Oil and one part water, using an atomizer. If you haven't an atomizer, gargle the throat and sniff the mixture up the nose. This treatment sets up an antiseptic wall of defense against "the germ."

Chest colds and sore throat lead to grip. Stop them at once with Wizard Oil before they can develop into dangerous influenza.

Get it from druggists for 30c. If not satisfied, return the bottle and get your money back.

Ever constipated or have sick headaches? Just try Wizard Liver Wipes, pleasant little pink pills, 30c at drugists. Guaranteed.

We learn that a musical treat in the form of a cantata, entitled "The Happy Family of Father Time," is being prepared under the auspices of the Grace Methodist Sunday School. As the cast includes the Church Choir as well as representatives from all classes of the Sunday school, and the cantata is of a serio-comic nature, the entertainment is sure to delight a mixed audience.

A nasty occurrence happened at the football practice last week when Eugene Tory suffered an accidental kick on the leg. No bones were broken, however, although 'Gene says it was painful enough for two

On Sunday next in celebration of the 101st anniversary of the I.O.O.F., the local subordinate and Rebekah lodges will attend divine service in a body at the Methodist church at 7:30 p.m., when Rev. Bro. N. Priestley will preach. All brothers and sisters of the order are asked to be at the lodge room at 6:45 p.m. The band is to lead the parade.

The record was reached at the creamery this week when a farmer drew down a cheque for $98 for one week's cream. This is the largest amount yet paid to a patron for the same period.

Mothers' Day will be observed in the Presbyterian church at the morning service next Sunday. On this occasion the Sunday school and congregation will hold a combined service for which special music is being prepared. A hearty invitation is extended to all mothers and grandmothers to be present.

The local lodge of the I.O.O.F. are holding a social in their hall tomorrow evening for the purpose of entertaining the members of the Rebekah degree. All Oddfellows and Rebekahs are welcome.

The vagaries of the weather are sure something to puzzle the wisest "footer." Last Saturday was surely a wedding of May and December so far as the elements and months were concerned.

On Sunday next special services will be held in Grace Methodist church. At 11 a.m. the Sunday scholars will celebrate Mothers' Day and in addition to a special girls' choir Miss Beattie Parsons will sing. The usual afternoon school will be cancelled.

At 7:30 p.m. the Wainwright lodge of the I.O.O.F. will parade to this church to celebrate the 101st anniversary of the founding of their order, when a special musical programme will be given. A large congregation is hoped for at both services.
